

The Wild Ashe Deer

Words and Accompaniments by

Mrs. A. V. Pendleton.

Guitar

(of N. C.)

Piano

Philadelphia LEE & WALKER 188 Chestnut St

THE WILD ASHE DEER

Con spirito.

A - way and a way we bound o'er the mountain, Ov - er the mountain Ov - er the mountain,

f

Ov - er the val - lies the hills and the fountains A - way to the chase, A - way, a - way! We

f heed not the tempest, The wild wind or dan - gery But joy - ous - ly shouting, A - way goest the ran - gery, animo.

Joy-ous-ly shouting a-way goes the ran-ger, A-way to the chase a-way! a-way!

ff

2nd V. - p.
A-
loco

- way and a-way our wild steeds are bounding, Our wild steeds are bounding, Our wild steeds are bounding, Thro-

break and thro' val-ley our shouts are re-sound'ing Away to the chase a-way a-way!

f ff

List! to the hounds bells Sweet - ly ring - ing Ov - er the hills the pp

wild Deer is spring - ing, Ov - er the hills the wild Deer is spring - ing, A
f ff

- way to the chase, a - way! a - way!
f

3rd Verse. See there the wild Deer! trembling, panting!
f agitato

trembling, panting! trembling! panting, Fearfully pausing! one moment standing! And then off he speeds a way, a way! he's gone boys! he's gone! Pursue him! pursue him! Hurrah

Accelerato. ff

rah boys, hurrah! I see him, I see him! Hurrah boys, hurrah! I see him, I see him! A way to the death of the wild Ashe Deer!

ff A tempo. ff

